

"Painting With Words"

A New Women's "Study Group" for Lower Church!

"Painting with Words" is an idea for a new Women's Study Group I would like to start at Lower Church. It is a "creative Bible study" and book club and will be open to all women at Lower. The first "Words" we will study will be based on the poetry book Have You Met Eve? about the women of the Bible. It was written by my good friend and poet/author Joyce Carr Stedelbauer of Williamsburg.

In Joyce's poetic words about the "Ladies of the Scripture" (from page 1) "You whisper with few words, spoken softly, through crenelated centuries with messages needing to be heard".
